Introduction.

Our honorable president made many decisions, "Pre-school education system "On measures to improve management" of the Republic of Uzbekistan The decision of the President and at the same time "Preschool education system until 2030 development concept" was approved. Preschool education system in these decisions further development of the network, modern and effective education of children use of methods and pre-school educational institutions with qualified personnel issues such as providing, preparing children for school education are reflected. Today's Today, further development of the education sector is an urgent matter that our government is paying attention to It is no exaggeration to say that it is one of the fields. We know that children are curious, so we teach foreign languages to children at a young age mainly using games, pictures, songs and poems, cartoons is an effective method is considered Because the main concept in them is depicted in a picture in the brain. And this in turn, it requires us to describe everything we teach accordingly. Psyche of children studying in pre-school education and primary classes based on the hotness and liking category. Young children are naturally bright and beautiful are very interested in things and pay a lot of attention. Therefore, the teacher and It is an effective way for coaches to use more game methods sport method. In our contemporary present day life, we stay no longer only school, high school, colleg students and college students of greater instructional institutions, as nicely as pre-school educational institutions foreign language, in particular English, to college students and employees working in various fields language educating has been started. The cause is economically, scientifically and culturally developed Learning the languages of the countries is the key to studying the achievements of world science and development Harvard University is one of the outstanding representatives of overseas language teaching methodology

According to professor Wilga M. Rivers, being literate capacity understanding how to examine and write means.[1 Wilga M. Rivers. Teaching Foreign-Language Skills. 2nd ed. —

Chicago and London: The University of Chicago Press, 1981, p]. Language getting to know is additionally young depends on periods. According to scientists and psychologists, young people have language in contrast to adults they take in shortly and easily. It need to be referred to that the facts is for youngsters aged 6–7 years does not apprehend its meaning, however memorizes it mechanically.

Therefore, elementary school not to start educating English to college students with grammar necessary. Otherwise, through extinguishing the hobby in the preliminary stage of teaching a overseas language

Therefore, it is very necessary to teach young young people a overseas language

It is a hard and accountable task. Teaching English to young children

The following techniques can be used for meaningful and interesting teaching:

- actions, sensible activities, for example: tasting distinctive meals and fruits to see, to smell. Through this game, children will research English should be asked. When coaches taste a banana, its colour is yellow yellow, tasty, oblong in shape, fragrant asks for data and is an high-quality way to remember.

- pointing to objects; In this process, the trainer used the objects in the room questions are asked. What is it? (What is this?) This is an apple, This is a table

(This is a table).

- puppet theater scenes;
- images; drawings on the board;
- through visual aids, posters, books;

- thru gestures, facial expressions; When the instructor says some thing to the child or commands when giving, for example, come here, open the book, stand up, to the toddler if he makes use of gestures in sentences like seem at the blackboard will be understandable;

- watching cartoons; Children do no longer totally apprehend cartoons in English possible But the names of fascinating cartoon characters, the sentences they use quickly will remember. Because youth are curious and susceptible to imitation;

- via visible aids, posters, books;
- riddles; Children are interested in discovering answers to riddles. that is why When the teacher says the riddle in English or Uzbek, the adolescents reply it in English he should demand that he communicate in his language. Then kids learn phrases quickly;

- writing on matters that are seen and frequently used in day-to-day life.

For example: door, book, table, blackboard, window, etc write to the likes. Such matters are usually visible and there are many in practice because of its use, the child learns these phrases involuntarily.

Therefore, the use of this method of the student's data in the long term ensures that it is saved in memory. " Foreign language material (linguistic units) in speech

The approach of generalization at some stage in mastering is developed is a problem". [D. D. Djalalov, G. I. Stravchinskaya. Kniga dlya uchitelya k uchebniku

English language for VI category Uzbek school. —Tashkent: Ukitchich, 1973 (and later editions). — pp. 23-27]. Preschool kids and youthful children they don't matter on explaining policies when educating college students a overseas language, that is it because it is greater fantastic to use recreation methods. The essence is simple: a teacher conducts video games at some point of which children improve their language skills.

Conclusion.

In conclusion, language educating to younger youth is no longer an obligation, The lesson is performed in an interesting training style, the usage of a number of high-quality methods that the transition serves as a foundation for their future learning language gaining knowledge of is one of the most important areas in human society.

Use language as a ability of conversation in a natural environment (in the family, amongst the public) or it can be received virtually in an geared up manner (in class).
