We all know that in recent years, English is one of the most widely spoken languages in the world. Nowadays, everyone knows at least two languages, and this is not a way of self-development, but a necessity. 10 years ago, teaching English was only in schools, high schools, colleges and institutes, and in schools only from the 5th grade. were taught at the beginning and this made it difficult for the students to master the English language. But now the English language has become a mandatory component of education not only in schools, lyceums, colleges and universities, but also in many additional pre-school educational institutions. Nowadays, the demand for English language in society, on the one hand, as well as parents' understanding that the language is not only a factor in the education of a modern person, but also the basis of his social and material well-being in society, on the other hand, make early learning English especially popular and relevant. it is useful for each of us. In addition, knowing the English language now opens the door to great opportunities for us, for example, if we learn the English language perfectly, it will create a basis for us to travel abroad, because if you know the language, you can easily communicate when you travel to another country, and you do not need any translator, if you study if you go abroad, it will not cause any difficulties, you can easily communicate with people.

If you are an applicant and you have CEFR or IELTS level in English, there is a great chance for this, because you will be considered to have worked 30 out of 30 in the English language exam, this is also a help for yourself. Even now, almost all universities require a CEFR or IELTS certificate from students. If you don't have a certificate showing your level of English before you graduate, you won't be able to graduate. This is the reason why we need to learn English. People who are not in their field may have a hard time learning English, but later it will open doors of great opportunities for them. For example, if a student studying in the field of medicine goes abroad to work and improve his knowledge, he can work easily because he has an IELTS or CERF certificate and can communicate easily.
