

ACTIVITY OF ALEXANDER ARKADEVICH FEINBERG

Raxmonqulova Feruza Akmal qizi

UzSWLU, Foreign language and literature 3rd faculty

Annotation: This article presents opinions about the life and work of A. Feinberg. Works, scientific works and translations of Alexander Arkadevich Feinberg, Uzbek information about his role in the literature, his contributions to Uzbek literature.

Keywords: Alexander Feinberg, poet, poems, books, collection of poems, films, animation films, script, literature, rhythm, writing, journalism, award, production.

Literature is the heart of the people, it shows the spirituality of the people. People in today's complicated times from the impressive power of literature in finding a way to their hearts and inspiring them to noble goals should be used. Studying the legacy of our ancestors is a great literature worthy of our great culture we will create all the conditions to create.

(President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoyev) Alexander Arkadevich Feinberg was born on November 2, 1939 in Tashkent - his parents were born in 1937. He was born after moving to Novosibirsk. He spent his childhood on the former Zhukovsky street. After completing seven years of school, Alexander Feinberg went to study at the Tashkent topographical technical school enters. After finishing the technical school, he goes to Tajikistan for military service. Then, Tashkent University Journalism department of correspondence faculty of philology (now Tashkent State National University) graduates and works in the majority of students. 1961 married I. N. Koval. He is ten is the author of five poetry books. Also, four feature films based on his scenarios feature films and more than twenty animated films were shot. He is Alisher Navoi epics and poems, as well as poems of other modern Uzbek poets into Russian translated. His poems —Smena, —Yunost (—Youth), —Novymir (—New World), In magazines —Zvezda Vostoka (—Eastern Star), —Novaya Volga (—New Wave) and USA, Canada and published in periodicals of foreign countries such as Israel. Alexander Arkadyevich Feinberg - Russian poet. People's poet of Uzbekistan (2004). Faculty of Journalism of Tashkent State University graduated (1965). Consultant at the Union of Writers of Uzbekistan (1965-69). Etude (1967), "Sonia" (1969), "Poems" (1977), "Oliskopriklar" (1978). "Answer" (1982). "Shortwave" (1983), Author of "Yomator" (1984), "Erkinsonet" (1990) and other poetry collections. Feinberg's the past and the present, the West and the East, nationality and internationality are mutual in his poetic work connects and creates a unique artistic world. Feinberg's lyrical hero is historical-social in the age of silsilas, he fully preserved his human essence, compassion and help to others ready to lend a hand, from the unpleasant events and incidents that are currently happening on earth A person who suffers is a generous person. In the poetry of Feinberg, the most of Russian and European poets good artistic experiences are synthesized. The traditions of Eastern classical poetry are also part of his creative style not a stranger. Literary translation is an important part of Feinberg's work. Uzbek poetry ghazals of the well-known poet Navoi, Erkin Vahidov, Abdulla Oripov, Amon Matjon and others translated poems and epics of Uzbek poets into Russian. Based on the screenplay by Feinberg "My brother", "Under the hot sun", "Those found in Kandahar" at the "Uzbek film" studio. "Criminals and vindicators" and other films were shot at the "Tajik Film" film studio. Alexander Feinberg Arkadevich - Russian poet, People's Poet of Uzbekistan. Uzbekistan is in the sky of poets. Alexander Feinberg is undoubtedly one of the brightest stars. His creativity is very lively. He is the author of collections published in Tashkent, Moscow and St. Petersburg. His pen is artistic the scripts of the films belong. By the decree of the President of Russia Alexander, the poet of Uzbekistan Arkadyevich Feinberg was awarded the 2008 Pushkin Medal. 1999 "Pakhtakor" football based on his script on the 12th anniversary of his team's death in a tragic plane crash The film "Their ball field is in the sky" was filmed, the lyrics of the song sounded in the film 1979 written by Alexander Feinberg. For several years A. A. Feinberg

He led the seminar of young people of Uzbekistan in Tashkent. He wrote seven verses belongs to the film script, the most notable of which are: "Under the bluest sky" —Home in the Hot Sunll, —The Lost in Kandaharll, as well as 18 animated films is also the author. His prose arouses great interest. Great translator Feinberg to the Russian language reader published many works of famous Uzbek poets. "Spirits" by Erkin Vahidov in Moscow and in Tashkent, where the epic "rebellion" was published, Abdulla Oripov and Khosiyat Rustamova, Sirojiddin Said and a collection of poems by Amon Matchon, —The Gala of White Birdsll, was published. —Vinchll (—Chig'ir in Uzbek) and similar collections published in recent years are dedicated to the poet himself. attracted the attention of lovers of poetry as a unique creative pen. Feinberg's multi-ethnic Uzbek.

His contribution to the development of literature was duly appreciated by the government. —Uzbekistan Honored Culture Worker, People's Poet of Uzbekistan the fact that he was awarded is a proof of our infinite respect for this great man. Cinematography agency According to the order, "Studio of Documentary and Chronicle Films" documentary film studio of the people of Uzbekistan will shoot a documentary film about the poet Alexander Feinberg. This film is about the poet's life and work dedicated. Famous Uzbek poets and writers whose statues are placed on Adiblar Avenue One of the films in the "People's Heart" series. People's poet of Uzbekistan on November 2, 2019 Alexander Feinberg would have turned eighty years old. On the same day named after Alisher Navoi The National Library of Uzbekistan sponsors an event dedicated to the memory of the People's Poet of Uzbekistan did Alexander Feinberg. Memorial plaque to the house where the poet lived (Tashkent, Great Silk Road, installed. Relatives, friends and students of the poet gathered for the celebration. 50th school students, where A. Feinberg read, so impressed the audience that many of the poem tears were shed when he read it. People stood up and applauded. Feinberg's wife Inna Koval is a small woman with a slightly bent body, but a strong and clear voice was His ideas surprised everyone. They gave him a basket of apples, but he tasted them all demanded to see: "Please help. Yourself." Koval, erikabi, compassionate, strong, generous and hand was open. On this day, a solemn ceremony was held at the Academic Russian Drama Theater. To the audience. The film Jasur Is'hakov, who saw and heard the poet. Brief information about the documentary produced by the producer gave production taken in one breath. Acquaintances of the poet spoke. Alexander Feinberg. His poetry was translated into Russian and Uzbek languages and songs based on them were sung.

Alexander Feinberg is one of the most prominent figures of Uzbek poetry no doubt. His name and work are completely unchanged among Uzbek fans and poets. Feinberg historical and current periods, West and East, nationalism and internationalism, West and East in his poetry and united to create a separate aesthetic field. Alexander Arkadevich is for us, the people of Uzbekistan for his true patriotism of his homeland is very valuable. Alexander Feinberg the best traditions of classical poetry and feelings of love for the land of Uzbekistan. His incomparable and unique work is a special page in the history of our literature. Alexander Feinberg regardless of language or nationality, all lovers of literature in Uzbekistan know well and they respect.

REFERENCES:

1. Alexander Fainberg —An Attempt to Autobiographyll
2. Mikhail Knizhnik —Living Poetll Published in The Jerusalem Journal. Number 31, 2009
3. Elena Atlanova:Alexander — Feinberg's Cage of Freedomll
4. Alexander Fitz —About the poet Feinbergll Published in Khreshchatyk magazine number 4, 2005
5. "Literature and Art of Uzbekistan" newspaper, Number 24, 2009

6. Musurmonov R. "The Alley of Writers - the Garden of Enlightenment". –T .: Uzbek literature and art, June 19, 2020.
7. Alexander Feinberg. Chigir. T .: Sharq, 2007.
8. Shuhrat Sirojiddinov Program and methodical manual for studying the life and work of Alexander Arkadievich Feinberg

